To restore and maintain the quality and integrity of the waters that flow into and form part of the Waipa River for present and future generations

The care and protection of te mana tuku iho o Waiwaia

Te Mana Tuku Iho o Waiwaia

Waiwaia refers to the essence and wellbeing of the Waipa River

Waiwaia is the personification of the waters of the Waipa River, its ancient and enduring spiritual guardian

Te Mana o te Awa o Waipa

The Waipa River is of deep cultural significance

It is a taonga and respect for it lies at the heart of our spiritual and physical wellbeing and our tribal identity and culture.

Te Mana o te Wai

Provides all manner of sustenance including physical and spiritual nourishment

Over generations has maintained the quality and integrity of our marae, whanau, hapu and iwi

Te Awa o Waipa

Historically the awa was a playground, a place to fish for inanga, tuna, koura and to gather watercress.

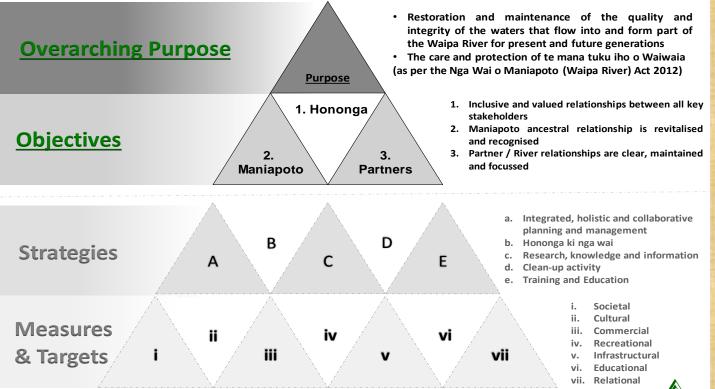

It was a place to perform sacred rituals

Te Awa o Waipa

The pollution, degradation and development of the Waipa has resulted in a decline of its rich fisheries and food sources

Maniapoto have suffered a decline in their way of life and their ability to meet their obligations of manaakitanga
